

Statistics IFJ Survey COVID-19 and press freedom:

Have your pay, job security and/or working conditions been negatively affected by the outbreak of the Covid-19 pandemic

Yes – 65.4%, No – 34.6%

Has your job as a journalist suffered more restrictions since the COVID-19 pandemic?

Yes – 73.9%, No – 26.1%

How has your work been affected by the outbreak?

Lost my job	6.93%
– lost revenue/income	37.69%
– Changed topics I covered/	35.70%
– Lack of equipment to protect myself in the field	23.74%
– Lack of equipment to work from home	27.47%
– Change in working patterns	43.41%
– Increased inequalities in newsrooms	9.62%
– Increased anxiety and stress	59.19%
– Legal restrictions on doing my job	16.38%
– My media closed	5.81%
– Faced lawsuits for my reporting on COVID-19	1.99%
– Got arrested for my reporting on COVID-19/	1.91%
– Got assaulted for my reporting on COVID-19/	2.95%
– Difficulties in finding independent sources/	23.92%
– Nothing changed	6.41%